

When this store opens its doors to-morrow morning every Suit, Coat, Dress, Skirt, etc., will be marked at about one-half its actual value. Don't imagine that the stock is broken and run-down, for such is not the case. About six weeks ago we anticipated these conditions, and were able to secure a special consignment at extremely low prices. The real winter season has not begun yet, so you had better take advantage of these "cut prices."

FIRST-AND-BROAD STS.

Manchester Bureau Times-Dispatch, 1103 Hall Street.
Rev. J. W. Durham, of the Balm-ford Street Baptist Church, has announced that he will deliver a sermon to-night, "Commending the Sinner to a Crooked Employee." It has not been stated whether the ministry will be referred to the local conditions, and it is probable that there will be a large congregation to hear the sermon.

Next City Vote This Week.
Chairman Brown, of the Consolidation Committee, himself an advocate of the union of the cities if equitable terms can be arranged, is hopeful of success. He has called a number of committees meet in joint session in the Richmond City Hall Tuesday night.
The meeting was well attended, and one of the committeemen, Chairman Brown expresses confidence in being able to secure a quorum, so that the meeting may proceed.
Colonel Buford, of the Richmond Committee, told the two delegates from Manchester that he was confident a quorum was present, that, so far as he is concerned, the fact that the union could not be effected in time for the election would not be a serious matter, that he was no longer an advocate of union.

Colonel Buford, it is said, told the Manchester delegates that he was willing to stick by the agreement made here several weeks ago, but that if the union was not effected, he would feel that that released him from supporting union at this time, as he considered the chief advantage to Richmond lay in the prestige of a larger population. Members of the Manchester delegation were surprised to hear to-night what effect the resignation of City Attorney Page would have on the negotiations.

Many Pay Poll Taxes.
The office of City Treasurer Bronaugh was kept open late yesterday afternoon on account of the large number of citizens who came in to call to settle poll taxes and qualify for possible elections which may be held in the city during the summer.
Every man in Manchester has his own views on the question of consolidation, and wants to express his views, whether an election is called, and there are many who wish to be ready to vote one way or another when the question of consolidation for Manchester during the next six months.

ASSAULTED, HE CLAIMS

J. E. Kidd Says He Was Held Up and Robbed by Three Negroes.

J. E. Kidd, of 405 Stewart Street, was according to his own account assaulted and waylaid last night by three negroes, one of whom held him up and shot him through the hand. Kidd took refuge in a nearby drug store, where the city ambulance was summoned, and where he was treated. He had suffered much loss of blood, but was so treated by Dr. Womack, that it was thought he would get home without aid. But Kidd needed aid.
